

I understand that you are considering a national 'no call' list for telemarketers. Although that's a wonderful idea, please don't weaken the existing state laws already in place. I love Indiana's 'no call' list. It has reduced annoying and useless dinner time interruptions to almost zero and I would hate to see our law made less effective.

Thank you for your consideration,
Chris Norrick